

REVEREND KENNETH D COOPER

Minister to Missions
Fountain Baptist Church

Kenneth D Cooper was born to Elvie and Daphne Cooper in Newark, New Jersey on 17 July 1972. He is a brother to five sisters and three brothers, one deceased. Kenneth Cooper is a product of the Newark, New Jersey public school system. The Black Engineers Alumni Association awarded him with a full academic scholarship at the New Jersey Institute of Technology, where he received the Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineer.

He continued his education by completing a dual degree program in theology and social work. Kenneth received the Masters of Divinity degree from Drew Theological School in Madison, New Jersey and the Masters of Social Work degree from the School of Social Work at Monmouth University in West Long Branch, New Jersey.

His former profession was in the Technology industry where he worked as a Desktop Analyst at Prudential Insurance Company, Technical Officer at JPMorgan Chase Company, and Technical Analyst at Walt Disney Entertainment Company with Good Morning America, Primetime, and Twenty-Twenty (20/20). He resigned from Walt Disney to serve as the Associate Minister to Missions at Fountain Baptist Church in Summit, New Jersey.

Kenneth was license to preach the Gospel on December 11, 2003 and ordained March 25, 2006 by his pastor Reverend J Michael Sanders and the Fountain Baptist Church in Summit, New Jersey. God has blessed Reverend Cooper to preach in the cities of Soweto, Durban, Pretoria and Johannesburg in South Africa and Georgetown, Guyana in South America. In addition to his preaching and teaching, he has a heart for missions. He develops and facilitate seminars for churches on the value and significance of missions in the church.

He is an advisor and member of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Missions Convention. He is also a member of the Black Engineers Technology Association, National Advancement Association for Color People (NAACP), International Consortium of Human Development and the fraternal organization of Groove Phi Groove Social Fellowship Inc, where he served as the 1st National Vice-President. He served as the President and Treasurer of the Black Ministerial Caucus at Drew Theological Seminary. Presently, he serves as the President of (P.A.N.G.E.A) Participatory Agent Nurturing Guidance Empowerment, Inc.

Kenneth is the proud husband of the former LaKeeyna S Sims and father of two wonderful children, D'Shaun and Kennedy Cooper and resides in Monmouth Junction, New Jersey. He continues to press forward towards the goal for the prize of the high calling in Christ Jesus (Phil. 3:14), realizing that he can do all things through Christ who strengthens him (Phil 4:13).