

N. S. Phillips, Esquire

Professional Profile

N. Scott Phillips earned his law degree from the University of Maryland and B.S. in accounting from Virginia Union University, graduating with valedictorian honors. Scott is an Intraprenurial employee of IBM and an Entrepreneurial Leader and advisor of several organizations. He is the managing member N. Scott Phillips, Attorney at Law, LLC and the real estate partnership of Phillips and Wright. He has used his business acumen and legal training to create numerous non-profit organizations. Most recently he created the Wayland Baptist Church Community Development Corporation which is building a 90 unit senior housing complex in an effort to redevelop an underserved community in Baltimore City.

Scott has worked for the IBM Corporation for over 25 years. As an Intrapreneur, Scott was taped to create IBM's award winning Federal Mentor-Protégé program which provides assistance to small, minority and disadvantaged firms. Scott's industry experience includes Federal, State, Local Government, Banking and Insurance.

Scott is actively involved in his community serving on numerous non-profit boards and commissions. He is the co-founder of Black Professional Men, Inc. an organization focused on "Ensuring the Future of the African American Male." He is married to Valarie and has two two daughters.

Education

J.D., University of Maryland School of Law, 1989
B.S., Accounting, Virginia Union University, 1983
IBM Marketing Education, 1990
IBM Project Management Training (PMP Certified) 2005

Professional organizations

American Bar Association
Maryland State Bar Association
NAACP – Life Member
Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. – Life Member

Other Affiliations

Virginia Union University National Alumni Association, President
University of Maryland School of Law Alumni Association

Boards and Commissions

Black Professional Men, Inc., Founder
Friends of the Family, Inc., Immediate Past President
Maryland District of Columbia Minority Supplier Development Council
State of Maryland Minority Business Reform Commission
Virginia Union University Board of Trustees
The Fullwood Foundation
WBC Community Development Corporation