Holder Nomination to U.S. Attorney General Has Been Rescheduled to Come Before Full U.S. Senate on Monday, February 2

FULL SENATE CONSIDERATION DELAYED BY FLOOR SCHEDULE; NAACP URGES EVERYONE TO USE THE EXTRA DAYS TO CALL THEIR SENATORS

THE ISSUE:

The vote by the full U.S. Senate on Eric Holder's confirmation to be the next Attorney General of the United States, originally scheduled to be considered as early as today, Thursday, January 29, has been postponed until Monday, February 2, 2009. The Senate is trying to finish the legislation it is currently considering before it takes up anything else. The NAACP encourages everyone to take the extra time to contact their Senators and urge them to support this important nomination.

Eric Holder, who has been nominated by President-elect Barack Obama to serve as Attorney General of the United States, is the right person for the job. The Department of Justice has, for the past 8 years, been woefully mismanaged, and as a result it has not adequately protected Americans' voting, housing or employment rights; nor has it even attempted to address police misconduct or a whole host of other issues to ensure that our rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are protected.

Through his historic nomination of Eric Holder (if confirmed Eric Holder will be the first African American U.S. Attorney General in history) President-elect Obama has selected a person who has, throughout his career, demonstrated a commitment to justice, an even-handed nature, and an ability to lead. In addition to serving as the Deputy Attorney General under Janet Reno and leading the transition from Ms. Reno to her successor, Attorney General John Ashcroft, Eric Holder has served as the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, as a Superior Court Judge nominated by Ronald Reagan and as a trial attorney in the Public Integrity section of the Department of Justice. Mr. Holder knows the U.S. Department of Justice and knows what needs to and can be done, and is clearly the best candidate to swiftly and competently restore and reinvigorate the beleaguered department.

THE NAACP SOLIDLY SUPPORTS ERIC HOLDER'S NOMINATION AND STRONGLY URGES EVERYONE TO CONTACT BOTH YOUR SENATORS TODAY AND URGE THEM TO VOTE TO CONFIRM ERIC HOLDER TO BE THE NEXT ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES.

RE: STRONG SUPPORT FOR ERIC HOLDER TO SERVE AS THE NEXT ATTORNEY GENERAL

Dear Senator _____;

As your constituent, I strongly urge you to support the historic nomination of Eric Holder to be the next Attorney General of the United States. Mr. Holder is the most qualified of nominees for Attorney General in memory and there is no doubt that he will lead the U.S. Department of Justice, and the United States, with an integrity and strength that is sorely needed at this time.

Mr. Holder is uniquely qualified for this position. Not only did he serve the nation and the Department of Justice with unqualified success as Deputy Director under Attorney General Janet Reno, but he also led a smooth and successful transition team between the Clinton and Bush administrations. Furthermore, throughout his career not only as Deputy Director of the Department of Justice and as the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, as Associate Judge for the Superior Court for the District of Columbia and as a trial attorney in the Public Integrity section of the Department of Justice Mr. Holder has demonstrated a willingness to use his independent judgment along with his even-handed nature to advance the principles of justice and the Constitution that is admirable.

Our nation, and especially our racial and ethnic minority citizens, is clearly facing a crisis in confidence that the US Department of Justice is not a true defender of our rights. Eric Holder is the right person at this time to rebuild not only the Department, but also our country's reputation as a defender of the rights of all Americans to pursue the Constitutional promises of life, liberty and happiness.

Thus, I urge you again, in the strongest terms possible, to swiftly and resoundingly confirm Eric Holder to be the next Attorney General of these United States. Please contact me in the near future to let me know what you intend to do regarding this vital nomination and what I can do to assist you in seeing Mr. Holder confirmed.

Sincerely,
