Established in 1967, at the height of the civil rights movement, the NAACP Image Awards is the nation's premier event celebrating the outstanding achievements and performances of people of color in the arts, as well as those individuals or groups who promote social justice through their creative endeavors.

The misguided and stereotypical portrayals of African Americans and others in television and film reminds us why the NAACP and the NAACP Image Awards are so important in amplifying the artistic accomplishments of communities of color.
The NAACP Image Awards is a well-respected, prestigious event that uniquely brings together the entertainment industry, civic and corporate leaders. Image Awards offers a series of events and special promotion opportunities designed to provide our partners:

• High brand/product visibility via publicity, event and public relations tie-ins
• Brand Association with the country’s oldest and most respected civil rights organization
• Opportunity to demonstrate commitment to multicultural ideologies and the maintenance of cultural diversity

Each year, companies of all sizes and industries support the NAACP by sponsoring the Image Awards. Past event lead sponsors have included:
A series of events leading up to and after the live broadcast of the Image Awards celebrate the spirit of the Awards and provide our partners with many opportunities to interface directly with an affluent multicultural and diverse target group and to create first-hand marketing opportunities.
Nominees Press Conference
Tuesday, December 6, 2016
NAACP Image Awards’ nominees are announced at a celebrity hosed press conference. The press conference received national and international coverage from major news and entertainment outlets such as the Associated Press, Entertainment Tonight, Access Hollywood, CNN, Los Angeles Times, E!, and Extra. On average, the event receives millions of impressions.

Nominees Luncheon
Saturday, January 28, 2017
Each year, more than 300 people attend the Nominees Luncheon for an afternoon of entertainment, networking and congratulatory cheer for all the nominees. The event attracts significant media attention, with more than 50 media outlets covering the event and guests including nominees, industry professionals, celebrities, and civil rights leaders.

13th Annual NAACP Hollywood Bureau Symposium
Thursday, February 9, 2017
One of the most anticipated symposiums of the season, the NAACP Hollywood Bureau Symposium is standing room only every year. Panelists include some of the industry’s most accomplished professionals engaging in a moderated discussion about pressing issues impacting the entertainment industry.
Official Events

Non-Televised Awards Dinner
Friday, February 10, 2017

The non-televised awards dinner, held the night before the live broadcast, celebrates all nominees and recognizes the winners from many of the Image Awards categories. This red carpet event is attended by more than 600 nominees, industry executives, and NAACP leaders.

Post-show Gala Celebration
Saturday, February 11, 2017

Immediately following the live show, the celebration continues at the Post-show Gala Celebration. Nearly 1,500 people join the NAACP, community and corporate partners, nominees, and winners to celebrate and acknowledge all of the 48th NAACP Image Awards winners. Great food and entertainment and the opportunity to network with artists and activists make the Image Awards Post-show Gala Celebration one of the hottest tickets in town.
